Who isn't looking forward to springtime? Even if we didn't have too harsh of a winter, most everyone loves to see the trees green, and the flowers bloom, me included.

I thank everyone for the cards and visits while I "vacation" in the hospital. I've been in for six weeks now and look forward to getting back home and to a more normal life once again.

I have heard good reports from the annual general meeting. I wish to thank the outgoing board and extended board for a job well done. Mostly the board remains unchanged with the addition of two new members in the positions of first and second social director. We also welcome two new auditors. Please give the new board your support and help. I also thank everyone for the confidence in me as president. I am proud to be the president of the Germania Club.

Club life works because a group of people with a common interest come together and form a club. In the beginning the interest is intense and the joy that the club brings is great. It's easy to maintain the club and to attract new members. So it was with the Germania Club, and misfortune brought two waves of new immigrants to Canada and new members to the Germania Club. The last wave was 60 years ago, and times have changed. The Germania Club needs to rely on small immigration and the second and third generation Germans. But where are the second and third generation members? In the next issue of the Germania Post you will be introduced to long time members and children who are also members of the club. In order to survive and prosper the club members and that means you, need to introduce or maybe re-introduce your children and grandchildren to the club.

I've met several member's children and they mostly all have the same interest in the club. When they see the large hall it brings back memories from the past. Most don't speak German but understand it. They tend to ask questions like what goes on in the club. What is the large hall used for? The interest is genuine. Most members say that their children are not interested because they've married someone who is not German, but I think they are wrong. Maybe they don't want to come to the club on a weekly basis to dance to a German band, but most are proud of their heritage, and culture, in my opinion that interest needs to be nurtured. That's the challenge that the new board and all members face, and the challenge that the board will work on.

I wish you a wonderful springtime. Remember for flowers to grow you need sunshine and rain.

David Simon
President

Choral Notes

'All Choirs' Night' turned out as expected - a delightful evening of choral singing. That's what all the practicing was for. Seven choirs performed a great variety of songs in different styles of music from Bach to contemporary show tunes, Abba, and Punk, - and all in good taste! Everyone must have had a favourite song. My own favourites were 'It Is Well With My Soul' sung by the Classic Blend under the leadership of Dennis Adams, and 'Fare Thee Well, Love', sung by a new chorus called Sound under the direction of Jordan Travis. Our choir contributed two new songs, Bach's 'Menuett' and 'Jacob's Ladder'. The audience applauded heartily! The concert was free, but donations were accepted toward the St. Joseph's Relief Fund for Haiti. We raised over $ 600 in this way.

The following day the Germania Choirs sang at the memorial service for Jost Behnke, Edith's husband. Jost has been a quiet but steadfast supporter of the choirs, coming out frequently to our concerts, even out-of-town. He loved to help out with various tasks and often let Linus know when we sang a particular song so well that 'he felt the goose bumps rise on the back of his neck'. At a reception held at the Club, we met with Edith's daughter Sylvia from Edmonton and the extended

The Campers Report

This is a terrible way to start a new camping season. Karl Heidt, our friend and our chairman, passed away on March 3rd, on his 76th birthday. Karl had been involved with the Germania Club for more than fifty years and was there when the campground was first established. As a stonemason by trade, Karl created almost all the brickwork in the park, including the entrance gate, Germania Park sign, memorial and the pavilion with its fireplace. When our park manager needed help, Karl was there. He had been the campers' chairman for more years than I can remember. Even though cooking for various occasions was not part of his job, he volunteered often and became very good at it. His passing left a huge hole in our little group. With deep sorrow, our heartfelt sympathies go out to his wife, Eva, to his children, grandchildren and all other family members. The campers will make a donation, in Karl's honour, toward the memorial fund.

What kind of a winter was this anyway? At the time of writing, we only had one mediocre snowfall and temperatures hovering mostly around freezing. That makes me think that all those unlucky folks that went to Florida and experienced frost in January for four days in a row, most likely wasted their money.

All right, enough, let's all stop gloating and deal with matters on hand.

Opening day is just around the corner. Usually, the first days of a new camping season are mostly work. Dislodging any critters, checking for leaks or damage, bringing all that stuff back from home, stocking the fridge and of course, not to forget, cleaning the roof and outsides of our camper trailer. As we all know, there are many good products out there; even Walmart and Canadian Tire carry those now and they work well. However, a word of warning: Do not use any oil based products on your rubber roof. They will soften the membrane which will eventually disintegrate. Rubber roof cleaners are especially formulated for this task. But then, most likely, you knew all this already. And as a reminder, especially for our new campers: July, August and September are water preservation months. That means, preferably, we will clean our rigs before that, not after.

One more time: Our annual campers' meeting will be on the 2nd day of May at one o'clock at the Pavilion in the Germania Park. Because of the passing of Karl Heidt, we will not have our traditional Leberkaese lunch before the meeting. We will, however, have coffee and cake instead. Elections for all positions of the camper committee are held at this time. We are especially looking for a new chairman (chairwoman) and a second in command. A few times in the past, these meetings have been somewhat raucous affairs, especially when some controversial subjects are brought forward. So, if you have something that might be difficult to deal with, please bring it to the attention of the acting chairperson way before the meeting. No one likes to be ambushed, at that get-together, with something he or she is not prepared for.

Changing gears:

You may have noticed that I very rarely comment on those of us who are sick. I feel being ill is, for many of us, a very personal experience. Having it mentioned in the Germania Post and consequently getting phone calls and visits is not always a good way of becoming well again. Having said that, should you or a family member call me and ask to acknowledge someone's ill health and post get well wishes, I'll be glad to do that.

Even though, with Karl missing, opening day will be a sad occasion, I am still looking forward to seeing all of you at the park in the spring.

Egon Roeslein. Camper.

PS.

Campers, please mark this on your calendar: Our annual Camper Picnic is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, August 7th.

Aus unserem Frauenverein

This was our first meeting in 2010 and we are pleased that we had a good turnout. A lot needed to be discussed, since we have our Stiftungsfest on March 13th, 2010. Dinner, attendance, invitations needed to be discussed.

We also have two members who celebrate a milestone as members of the Ladies Auxiliary. Charlotte Voronoff 50 years Rosi Kramolowsky 25 years Congratulations to the both of them.

Rosi also mentioned the Schlachtfest. She asked the members to support the undergroups functions. She also mentioned we need new blood in our Ladies Auxiliary, especially younger members. If our group cannot attract more members our future looks not that promising.
